Chatra Divas Celebration

The Department of Bodo, in collaboration with the Bodo Literary Society, successfully organized the Chatra Divas celebration at Mangaldai College. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Kamala Kanta Borah, Honorable Principal of Mangaldai College; Seema Jyoti, Associate Professor, Department of Zoology; Phakhon Brahma, Head of the Department of Bodo; Kamal Daimary, Assistant Professor, Department of Bodo; and Jyotishman Kalita, President of the Mangaldai College Students' Union.

With the active participation of more than 100 students, the event was both vibrant and engaging. A major highlight of the celebration was the inauguration of the first edition of the handwritten magazine JUGUNDWI, a 100-page creative publication jointly produced by the Department of Bodo and the Bodo Literary Society. The magazine was officially inaugurated by Dr. Kamala Kanta Borah, who also delivered an insightful speech on the invaluable contributions of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma to society and emphasized the importance of literature as a medium for cultural preservation.

As part of the celebrations, a handicraft-making competition was conducted. Additionally, the event was enriched with a series of cultural and literary performances, further enhancing the festive atmosphere.

The successful organization of Chatra Divas underscored the importance of student engagement, cultural preservation, and academic excellence. The organizers extended their sincere gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, and students for their enthusiastic participation, which contributed to making the event a resounding success.
