

Field Study on Bega River

Field Study was done by the students of Philosophy Department on cleaning the riverbank of the polluted Bega River on 21.04.2023. Such activities serve as a crucial initiative to preserve the health of water bodies, protect ecosystems, and maintain the well-being of surrounding communities. Around 50 students participated in the field study.

Acknowledgement of Riverbank
Cleaning by Mangaldai College
Community in Assamese
Vernacular Newspaper.

