Appointment of Student Counselor:

The institution has appointed a Student Counselor to provide academic, personal, and psychological guidance to students. The counselor is responsible for addressing issues related to academic stress, emotional well-being, career guidance, and overall personality development. Regular counseling sessions and awareness programmes are conducted to support students in maintaining mental health and improving academic performance. The institution ensures confidentiality and a supportive environment, in accordance with AICTE guidelines, to promote the holistic development and well-being of students.
